In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint timelines vary by program or incident. Individuals with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the State or local agency administering the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, available online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide all of the requested information. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Send your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Mail Stop 9410, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov. The USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
